Thanks.
These are fine.
We will conform the document and get it filed this afternoon.

Dan,

Attached is the joint motion with a few redline edits. The Order looked fine.

With these edits and if there are no further changes, you can proceed to file.

Regards,

Ethan

Importance: High

Ethan/Bill---Attached is a joint proposed motion for extension of time (and accompanying order) to submit the proposed ENE schedule to the Court. Given the number of moving parts on our end we've asked for 2 weeks but are hopeful that it won't take that long.

Please review the attached papers and let us know if you have any changes or suggestions. Obviously, we would like to get the joint motion filed with the Court as soon as possible today.

Hi Rich—

I'm going to be out of the office for most of the next two days, with sporadic access to email but without much in the way of word processing access.

If we can bring the joint statement to a quick finalization, please work directly with Ethan on that.

If, as you had mentioned earlier, it will take the defendants a few more days to figure out the scheduling issues, we are not opposed to a joint request to the Court to kick back the date on which the joint statement and proposed ENE schedule are due.

Thanks—Bill

Subject: AMERANTH/PIZZA HUT (ENE Schedule)

Dear Counsel—

The Court has informed us of changes in its available dates for ENE's in this matter in January and February because of its criminal calendar assignments. In light of those changes, and a few requests for specific ENE slots made by certain individual defendants, at Mr. Caldarelli's request attached please find: (a) a proposed joint statement re the ENE schedule; and (b) the revised proposed ENE Schedule.

These items are currently due to be filed on Friday, October 11. Mr. Zembek has raised the possibility of requesting additional time to submit the joint statement and proposed schedule if necessary in order to confirm availability for the ENE dates with each of the parties.

Thank you,
-Eirin
